

Ipconsulting provides companies with business and management consulting on project basis with the goal to drive value creation and sustainable growth. They can also provide you with an interim manager to help you resolve a current issue or a temporary leadership vacancy.

The company's services are customized to the client's need and include review of organization and alignment, identification of business issues and of key priorities, preparation of business strategy and road map for execution, assistance in strategy execution, systems review and assessment.

Ipconsulting is offering a 10% discount on the latest rate card.